CHAPTER II

THIS IS NOT A HEART

It is strength, accepting the challenge,
believing in yourself

It is empathy, the ability to understand
someone else's feelings,
the desire to listen and share experiences

It is gratitude, for the love that we receive,
for the love that we give

This is not a heart

It is our story

This is not a heart.

It is strength,
accepting the challenge,
believing in yourself.

It is empathy,
the ability to understand
someone else's feelings,
the desire to listen and share experiences.

It is gratitude,
for the love that we receive,
for the love that we give.

This is not a heart.
It is our story.
