ORDER GUIDELINES

Welcome to our straightforward solution to ordering new visual merchandising elements for all your jewelry display needs. Regardless of which elements or styles you choose, we will custom size each platform for a continuous and cohesive layout through all your showcases.

All you need to do is help our professionals work through your specific needs by collecting the following information and taking note of the below helpful hints for success.

SPACE

Establish your tray needs based on your existing collection and how this might grow or change in the coming seasons. Weather they be used for shows, back-stock inventory, or travel, our design processonals will help you identify the best solution depending on your use-case scenario.

STYLE

You can choose from a variety of showcased trays and rolls which vary in style. Identifying your most important features such as "stackable", "light-weight", "space-saving", etc. will help our design professionals ensure that you are creating a cohesive look that meets your specific needs.

COLOR

We offer all material colors and textures from established companies such as Fifiel and Majilite amongst others. Understanding your brand, store décor, color pallet, and budget will help our team recommend the most appropriate materials and fabrics that the industry has to offer.

CUSTOM

We offer custom design services should you have display needs that are not met by any of the showcased elements or line items. All we need is your help in understanding your design objectives and we will provide you with custom display solutions to satisfy every need.

HELPFUL HINTS FOR SUCCESS

- Be sure to add some interest by following our provided examples with use of different materials, colors and textures.
- Be sure to consider all jewelery types in your collection for proper fitting within each type of tray or travel solution.
- Enlist our professional's help and advice, take advantage of the services we provide.

SERVICES OFFERED

- One on one collaboration with our design team to ensure your design needs are being met and your vision comes to life.
- Full-service experience, color selections, consulting, and material swatches from all the major top-level suppliers.
- Renderings to showcase examples of what your selections and colors would look like. Color studies with different colors/materials can be provided to help you visualize different options and select the best combination to suit your brand and jewelry identity.
- Referrals to related professions and trades related to your renovations. Showcase and lighting companies, architects, designers, and consultants.
